KUKI

This trio was formed for a series of concerts in Japan, June '75. The players knew each other's music from records exchanged between Tokyo & Paris.

This experience was made with great joy & strong friendship. The reaction of the public in Kyoto & everywhere we played, was unforgettable.

After the first concert in Niigata, we did this record at the Tokyo studios of Columbia. The pieces were the same that we continued to play on the rest of the tour.

STALKS - is about growth & pursuit. Written several years ago (to F. Dostoevsky), but first performed now. A sober piece with a crazy (Kuki) side to it.

MOON - written after the first steps on the moon (seen on TV). A 'Space Rhumba' dedicated to Film-maker Gianni Amico.

JAPANESE DUCK - much traveled, this beast, but always ready for another quack or two. Especially good here, the strength & delicacy in the free play between Togashi & Yoshizawa.

THE WANE - the end of a war, before the bitterness comes. (to Alban berg)

BONE - 'Self-Mastery is Bone' (from Lao-Tzu)

Lester Young was the hero who inspired this melody.

The music on this record came about in a natural & free way, Nature being the link, between musicians from different cultures.

DO NOT EDIT THIS FILE! 2011 - Blixt [with Raoul Bjorkenheim, Morgan Agren] 01 == 01.. Laswell is famous as a legendary producer and musician on the "downtown" improvisational scene in New York city, while Bjorkenheim, late of Finland (an improvisational hotbed all its own filled with great composers and musicians) has had his profile rise with tenures in the fusionesque band Krakatau and The Scorch Trio as well as an excellent disc he cut in the company of the great rhythm team of William Parker and Hamid Drake.. They shift gears into the percussion centered interlude "Moon Tune" speaking of a lunar influence that casts a diffuse blue light over the proceedings..
